

I'nayah J. Smith-Marsette

Attorney

4800 Capella Tower
225 South Sixth Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402
612-315-6314
ismithmarsette@brownsonpllc.com

I'nayah J. Smith-Marsette is an Attorney at Brownson, PLLC. I'nayah is involved in the Firm's Civil Litigation practice. I'nayah is a 2021 law school graduate. She has prior experience at another Minneapolis litigation firm, and previously served as a Floating Law Clerk to Chief Judge Toddrick Barnette of the Hennepin county District Court. Prior to that, she served as a Judicial Extern to Referee Franklin Reed of the Hennepin County District Court. Before law school, she worked as a Customer Due Diligence Operation Analyst at U.S. Bank in Minneapolis, and a Due Diligence Consultant at Wells Fargo Bank in Minneapolis.

Education

- Minnesota State Bar, 2022
- J.D., cum laude, Western Michigan University Cooley Law School, Riverview, Florida, 2021.
- B.A., magna cum laude, Delaware State University, Dover, Delaware, 2016.

Honors and Awards

- Resource Editor, Western Michigan University Cooley Law School Law Review
- President, Black Law Student Association, Western Michigan University Cooley Law School
- Senator, Student Bar Association, Western Michigan University Cooley Law School
- Chief Justice, Melissa Mitchell Moot Court, Western Michigan Lae School
- Vice President, Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society